

THE GRANGE & L·I·N·K·S

SOUS CHEF OPPORTUNITY

We're looking for a Sous Chef for our landmark hotel & leisure business on the Lincolnshire coast.

We have a great team, enthusiastic, hard working, good fun, reliable, experienced and professional and are looking for someone that can fit in and contribute to the Group's food offering development, with potential to grow into a Head Chef role within the business.

The bar and restaurant are part of a 20 bedroom 3 star country house hotel, a short walk from the beach, connected with an 18 hole links golf course with busy Clubhouse.

You must be used to using the best fresh produce, have excellent presentation skills, curiosity for new menu ideas and be able to contribute to budgeting, marketing and health & safety issues in the kitchen.

You will work 5 out of 7 days, mainly straight shifts, with the ability to step-in and deputise for our Head Chef.

Salary is in the region of £18-22k, depending on experience, with overtime payable and free access to Sandilands Golf Club, a quality links course.

You must be eligible to live and work in the UK. Accommodation is available.

About us...

The Grange & Links is a busy and characterful hotel in the secluded village of Sandilands in the Lincolnshire Coastal Country Park, a short walk from the beach.

The hotel is a landmark building with a rich history, known for its warm welcome and quality of food and hospitality.

The Group also includes the 18-hole Sandilands Golf Club, a well supported links course.

Please email your CV with a covering letter, some menus you've developed and some photos of your food. Thanks
